Marc-Leopold, a practicing psychoanalyst in Paris, is Director of the Ecole de Psychanalyse Laïque (EPL) and a member of the Cercle Freudien and the Association Psychanalyse et Medecin (APM). He is a supervisor of child psychiatry at the Hopital Robert Ballanger and a former member of their Ethics Committee. He is the author of Critique de la Jouissance Comme Une: Lecons de Psychanalyse, as well as numerous international publications.

Presentation: Qu'est-ce que le corps pour la psychanalyse?
Les corps du Sujet, le corps de l'individu.
The Bodies of the Subject, the Body of the Individual

This workshop will explore the question: what is the body for psychoanalysis. It will explore the thesis that the act of thinking of oneself as 'having' or 'being' a body does not accord well with a) the division between the bodies of the Subject as registered in the Real, Symbolic and Imaginary orders (as conceived by Lacan) nor with b) the reality of the body of each individual which perseveres as a cohesive unit in our being despite the way the unconscious divides the bodies of the individual (as conceived by Freud).

Date: Saturday, February 26, 2011
Time: 9:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Place: Ontario Institute for Studies in Education (OISE)
Room 8170 (eighth floor)
Fees: $100.00 (Students - $20.00)
